

2. God began preparing David to be king long before he made him king.
3. God often uses the least likely to accomplish his purposes.

For consider your calling, brothers: not many of you were wise according to worldly standards, not many were powerful, and not many were of noble birth. But God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise; God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong; 1 Corinthians 1:26–27 (ESV)

4. The qualities God desires out of our life are the qualities he brings about through the Holy Spirit in our life.
5. When looking at people, be careful to not judge by appearances.
6. A man after God's own heart is talking about the place the man has in God's heart, not the place God has in the man's heart.
7. How are you judging Jesus?

But you, O Bethlehem Ephrathah, who are too little to be among the clans of Judah, from you shall come forth for me one who is to be ruler in Israel, whose coming forth is from of old, from ancient days. Micah 5:2 (ESV)

And in the same region there were shepherds out in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And an angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were filled with great fear. And the angel said to them, "Fear not, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. And this will be a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger." Luke 2:8–12 (ESV)
