What can we learn?

1. God is our rock, savior, and protector. If God saved David when he called on him in desperate need, as God's chosen people, we can be confident God will respond when we call on Him in our time of desperate need.
2. The holiness of our lives impacts how God responds to our prayers. God honors those who honor him.
3. As David couldn't help but tell the nations about the goodness of God in his life, we should be overflowing with the message of God's goodness in our lives through Jesus.
