

Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised. Proverbs 31:30 (ESV)

And David said to Michal, “It was before the LORD, who chose me above your father and above all his house, to appoint me as prince over Israel, the people of the LORD—and I will celebrate before the LORD. I will make myself yet more contemptible than this, and I will be abased in your eyes. But by the female servants of whom you have spoken, by them I shall be held in honor.” 2 Samuel 6:21–22 (ESV)

And Michal the daughter of Saul had no child to the day of her death.
2 Samuel 6:23 (ESV)

Applications

Life Group Questions

1. Read 2 Samuel 6. What did you learn that was new? What parts of this message were a surprise?
2. The first time David tried to bring the ark to Jerusalem, David lacked reverence for God's holiness, and people suffered. Many American churches are also missing reverence for God and his holiness. How can churches help people cultivate a greater reverence for God's holiness in a casual culture?
3. When the ark teetered on the cart, Uzzah felt he had no choice but to stop it from falling. What can we learn from this about the way sin, and the consequences of sin, play out in daily life?
4. As the king's daughter, David fought hard to gain Michal as a wife (1 Samuel 18:20-29) and made great efforts to get her back when he became king (2 Samuel 3:13-16). Why was she important to him? Was she worth it? What does this teach us about the importance of choosing a godly spouse?
5. David showed great passion for the Lord in his worship. How should we show passion for the Lord in our worship? What should our worship music in the church be like?
6. How would you answer someone who claimed God's wrath was unfair when Uzzah was struck dead because Uzzah had good intentions?
7. What does this chapter reveal about God's character and the importance of obedience to God's Word?
8. Would you describe your enthusiasm for worship as more like Michal or David? What does this teach us about ourselves?

You shall make poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold. And you shall put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark to carry the ark by them. Exodus 25:13–14 (ESV)

And when Aaron and his sons have finished covering the sanctuary and all the furnishings of the sanctuary, as the camp sets out, after that the sons of Kohath shall come to carry these, but they must not touch the holy things, lest they die... Numbers 4:15 (ESV)

but they shall not go in to look on the holy things even for a moment, lest they die. Numbers 4:20 (ESV)

And they carried the ark of God on a new cart and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. And Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were driving the new cart, with the ark of God, and Ahio went before the ark. 2 Samuel 6:3–4 (ESV)

I do not permit a woman to teach or to exercise authority over a man; rather, she is to remain quiet. For Adam was formed first, then Eve;...

1 Timothy 2:12–13 (ESV)

For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions. For their women exchanged natural relations for those that are contrary to nature; and the men likewise gave up natural relations with women and were consumed with passion for one another, men committing shameless acts with men and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error. Romans 1:26–27 (ESV)

And David and all the house of Israel were celebrating before the LORD, with songs and lyres and harps and tambourines and castanets and cymbals. 2 Samuel 6:5 (ESV)

And when they came to the threshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah put out his hand to the ark of God and took hold of it, for the oxen stumbled. 2 Samuel 6:6 (ESV)

And the anger of the Lord was kindled against Uzzah, and God struck him down there because of his error, and he died there beside the ark of God. 2 Samuel 6:7 (ESV)
