

Which is easier say... 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Rise, take up your bed and walk'?...

5. The Crowds Reaction

And he rose and immediately picked up his bed and went out before them all, so that they were all amazed and glorified God, saying, "We never saw anything like this!" Mark 2:12 (ESV)

When the crowds saw it, they were afraid, and they glorified God, who had given such authority to men. Matthew 9:8 (ESV)

Application

- Jesus is more than a man. He is God because he does what only God can do.
- If Jesus' word has the authority heal sickness at his word, he also has the authority forgive sin at his word, because sin is the source of sickness.

Life Group Questions

1. How does someone have their sin forgiven by Jesus? (See 1 John 1:8-9; Acts 2:38; 13:38) Have you been forgiven by Jesus? How does forgiveness change you?
2. What should we do as Christians when we sin and know we need more forgiveness? (See 1 John 2:1-2. Look up the word propitiation in a dictionary)
3. How does complete forgiveness, when we come from a particularly sinful background before Jesus or when we have a serious lapse back into sin after coming to Jesus, change the way we love Jesus? (See Luke 7:37-50, note v.47)
4. Why must Christians always forgive others? (See Matthew 6:14-15; Matthew 18:23-35) Is there someone you haven't forgiven? Does forgiveness always mean restoring complete trust?
5. Is there a time when we should say, "enough is enough" and stop forgiving someone that sins against us repeatedly and each time asks for forgiveness? (See Luke 17:3-4) Why must we continually offer forgiveness when someone asks for it?

4. The Hostile Leaders

Now some of the scribes were sitting there, questioning in their hearts, “Why does this man speak like that? He is blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone?” And immediately Jesus, perceiving in his spirit that they thus questioned within themselves, said to them, “Why do you question these things in your hearts? Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Rise, take up your bed and walk’? But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins”— he said to the paralytic— “I say to you, rise, pick up your bed, and go home.” Mark 2:6–11 (ESV)

He is blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone?...

Immediately Jesus, perceiving in his spirit that they thus questioned within themselves, said to them, “Why do you question these things in your hearts?”...

But the Lord said to Samuel, “Do not look on his appearance or on the height of his stature, because I have rejected him. For the Lord sees not as man sees: man looks on the outward appearance, but the Lord looks on the heart.” 1 Samuel 16:7 (ESV)
